

Do you remember Cornhouse's online activity this year?

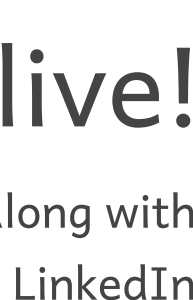

*Links are underlined

It all started in summer...

The sun was still shining and the temperatures were very high when our 2 new colleagues Annabelle & Marion arrived in our office in Rotterdam.

We became partners of Blijdorp zoo by sponsoring the Amur leopard.

PARTNER

On August 5th, our website www.cornhouse.nl went live!

Along with our LinkedIn & Twitter accounts

Since then, we have been updating you regularly about developments on the nuts markets by publishing 20 articles on our website! Including:

- ★ Cashew market reports
- ★ Peanut market reports
- ★ Updates on edible nuts
- ★ Updates on climate events
- ★ Other types of updates

3 thorough articles about our favourite nuts!

Cashew Trade Ways

Peanut consumption

Brazil nuts & Amazonian forest

Thanks to these, our website welcomed

2,374 visitors!

On Social media...

We have been active on

LinkedIn

with

57

posts

Twitter

with 109 tweets

We are proud of the way you made our community grow

541

LinkedIn followers

107

Subscriptions to our newsletter

47

Twitter followers

137

Notifications recipients

And finally...

In November, Miss Cashew

& Sir Peanut were born

2020 was definitely a year full of happenings!

We want to

Thank you for following us!

This is only the beginning. In 2021, and later, we will keep informing you on the latest nut market developments.

In the meantime, we would be pleased to hear your thoughts and ideas in the comment section.